

Indigo Product Release Process

Production change governance

This document is fictional and exists only to test retrieval, grounded answers, source separation, citations, and refusals.

Release controls

Code freeze

The standard production code freeze begins at 17:00 every Thursday.

Approval

A production release requires approval from Quality Assurance and the service owner.

Rollback

Every release must include a tested rollback plan that can restore service within 20 minutes.